GAS PIPELINE BURSTS AGAIN IN YORK COUNTY

A weak spot in the "Little Inch" natural gas pipeline was discovered Monday when a geyser of water broke through a section of pipe in the first day's testing near Davidsburg, York County. The faulty pipe was uncovered on the farm of Dewey Clapper, East Berlin R. 1.

Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation, which purchased the pipeline from the government in 1947, is shooting water under 1,100 pounds of pressure per square inch through the line in the Davidsburg area. Scene of two violent explosions recently, the area is the first section of a 30-mile stretch to be tested within the next two weeks.

The faulty pipe was removed and will be replaced today after which the section will be again tested.

Test By Sections
The 30-mile stretch has been broken into section of four to six miles. Each section will be tested separately.

About 400 pounds per square inch more than used in normal gas operations, the pressure is applied with the use of a portable compressor on a truck. The line will be tested from Marietta in Lancaster County westward across York County to Heidelberg, 10 miles north of Gettysburg.

Residents along the pipeline were asked by Texas Eastern Saturday to keep clear of the 50-foot right of way through which the line runs. Two Davidsburg area families whose homes are only a few feet from the section of line now under test were offered lodging in a York hotel at the firm's expense, while the test was in progress.

MONDAY'S HIGH HERE 97; 13TH DAY ABOVE 90

The Weatherman staged a little celebration here Monday.

It was the 26th anniversary of the last occasion on which the all-time high of 105 degrees was reached in Gettysburg.

And it was no trouble at all to send the mercury up to a new high for the current 10-day heat wave to celebrate the occasion.

Monday's maximum here was a sizzling 97 degrees, making it the hottest July 21 on record here since 1940.

105 Is Record For Date
But it was far short of a new record for the date because on several occasions the mercury has reached or topped the 100-degree mark on that date and in 1926 equalled the all-time high here of 105 degrees first set on August 6, 1918.

Monday was the 13th day this month with a high reading of 90 degrees or above and the temperature was heading into the nineties again early this afternoon.

Monday night's low was a warm 78 degrees, making it one of the hottest night this year.

The hottest day so far this year in Gettysburg was a 99 degrees on June 28.

Little Hope Of Relief

The weatherman offered little hope of relief today from the hot and humid conditions in many sections of the nation, the Associated Press said.

The hottest weather was expected in the southern half of the country with the northern sections getting near normal temperatures.

High temperatures in the 90s were common yesterday. At Blythe, Calif., the thermometer climbed to 109. Las Vegas, Nev., had 108 and Hill City, Kan., 104. But in Lewistown, Mont., the mercury only got up to 63.

Showers were numerous from Ohio, in the eastern Great Lakes region, across New York and New England Binghamton, N. Y., reported 2.27 inches of rainfall.

Most of the country, however, had sunny weather.

AAA Travel Magazine Picks Gettysburg As One Of Major Attractions In The Country

Gettysburg as a tourist mecca comes highly recommended by Walter W. Hubbard in an article in the July issue of The American Motorist entitled "Gettysburg — Travel Objective."

The American Motorist is the official publication of the American Automobile Association. Mr. Hubbard is its managing editor.

"Four score and nine years ago this July," the author says, "the army of Northern Virginia commanded by General Robert E. Lee, and 75,000 strong, moved toward south-central Pennsylvania. The division in butternut gray were still exuberant and enthused over their victory at Chancellorsville in May when 'Fighting Joe' Hooker went down to defeat."

The young green stalks of corn were straight and firm in the fields; daisies, black-eyed Susans, fragrant

TWO INJURED IN TRAFFIC CRASH

Two people were admitted to Carlisle Hospital after an accident on Route 34 near Goodyear Saturday night.

Lester Over, 17, Mt. Holly Springs, suffered a fractured pelvis, while Mae E. Kuhn, 26, Bendersville, was admitted for contusions and shock. A third person, Phil Bensing, 17, Carlisle, was treated and discharged.

The mishap occurred when Ronald Pompeo, Mt. Holly Springs, who was driving south on Route 34, went over a sharp hill crest, and came up behind a slow-moving line of traffic. Traveling too fast according to State Police, to fall into line behind the vehicles, he applied the brakes, skidded to the left side of the road, stopping broadside in the highway.

The Kuhn vehicle, traveling north, hit the Pompeo car broadside, resulting in total damages of $1,000; $800 to the Kuhn car and $200 to Pompeo's, State Police said.

Over and Bensing were traveling with Pompeo, who was uninjured.

Angry Southern Rumbblings Against "Loyalty Pledge" Shakes Democratic Conclave

CHICAGO (AP) — The Florida delegation voted today to go along with the "loyalty" resolution adopted by the Democratic National Convention.

Farris Bryant, chairman of the delegation, said the resolution raised "no problem as far as we are concerned as a state," and followed pretty much the state laws.

By JACK BELL

CONVENTION HALL, Chicago (AP) — Angry Southern rumbblings over a "loyalty pledge" adopted by the Democratic National Convention shook the party conclave today, momentarily, contention over the presidential nomination dropped into the background.

Sentiment apparently was sweeping increasingly toward reluctant, Bible-quoting Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois. This growing draft movement was reported to be one of the reasons why Vice President Alben W. Barkley pulled out of the presidential race late last night.

However, Barkley didn't mention Stevenson. The 74-year-old Kentuckian's withdrawal announcement hit particularly at a pronouncement by some union labor people that he is too old for the job.

Holding Caucuses

But the question of the moment was what kind of shape the party would be in when Stevenson, or whoever winds up with the grand prize, goes out to scrap with GOP nominee Dwight D. Eisenhower for the presidency.

Southern delegations were holding caucuses this morning in downtown hotels and other points. Although some Southern states supported the "loyalty pledge," delegates from others were steamed up over it.

Without Roll Call

They didn't like the pledge in the first place and were hot under the collar besides over the way it was brought up after midnight and slammed through at two o'clock in the morning without a roll call vote.

During the heated debate, Sen. A. Willis Robertson of Virginia suggested to the convention that Stevenson might refuse a nomination if the party was split asunder. He said he didn't believe Stevenson would take it "on a gold platter, much less a silver one."

Called Ambiguous

Ambiguous in language and subject to almost any kind of interpretation, the rule said in effect that delegates must give assurance they will exert every "honorable means" to see that the convention's presidential and vice presidential nominees get on their state's ballot.

It was shoved down the throats of protesting Dixie delegations by Sen. Blair Moody of Michigan, newspaperman turned politician. Moody may be eyeing the vice presidential nomination.

The rule was gavelled into existence by Gov. Paul Dever of Massachusetts, the temporary chairman, after piercing complaints by Southern leaders that it would put them in the position of violating their state laws or party organization instructions.

Five states with 110 votes toward the 615½ needed for the presidential nomination would be affected directly. They are Virginia, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and Louisiana.

All of these five have laid out machinery with which they could

BATTLE HYMN OF DEMOCRATS IS SOUNDED

By JAMES MARLOW

CHICAGO (AP)—"You never had it so good."

That's the battle hymn the Democratic Party will sing to the voters in the political wars between now and November.

That was made clear last night by the keynote speech Gov. Paul A. Dever made to the Democratic National Convention.

Since a keynote speech is supposed to set the tone and mood of the party's campaign, Dever spent a lot of time comparing the present with the past, to the credit of the Democrats.

Defended Them Too

He cited employment figures, corporate profits, earnings in general and social benefits now, compared with the last years of the regime of the GOP, which has been on the outside looking in since 1932.

But, like man patting himself on the back with one hand while waving away unpleasantness with the other, Dever had to do a double-take.

While praising the Democrats, he had to defend them, too.

In case anyone wondered what effect Republican attacks on the Democrats have had, Dever showed it had made them self-conscious, at least.

Another Defender

But hours before Dever took the platform, Sen. Paul Douglas of Illinois addressed the convention.

Douglas' speech was a defense and explanation of the Truman administration's policy in Korea.

That, too, was an attempt to reply to Republican criticism of the administration, particularly the barbs tossed during the Republican National Convention.

Dever's theme—"you never had it so good"—is a kind of combination with a Democratic slogan of previous years: "Why change horses in the middle of the stream."

Why Change

That last slogan wasn't mentioned but what Dever was saying in effect was: "If you never had it so good, why change etc.?"

While the Democrats should be able to benefit from Republican mistakes—through having their convention after the Republicans—it puts them at a disadvantage: Having first crack at the public's attention, the Republicans can go on the offensive from the start, as they did, by lambasting the Democrats.

Won't Spare The Heroes

Since one convention follows so fast upon the other, the public's memory of the Republican attacks is still vivid when the Democratic convention opens.

This pushes the Democrats into the position of having to defend some of their actions, thus using up time which might otherwise have been used in slam-bang digs at the opposition.

Undoubtedly, as the campaign increases in heat, the Republicans will do more attacking, forcing the Democrats into more defenses.

But the Democrats, as Douglas disclosed, will not spare the heroes in trying to win the election.

BOLT STRIKES PROPELLER AND TWO SOLDIERS

READING, Pa. (AP)—A bolt of lightning struck the propeller of a plane and then hit an air national guardman in the neck yesterday, throwing him about 20 feet.

Tech. Sgt. Theodore Sivar, of Providence, R. I., a member of the 152nd fighter squadron of the 102nd Rhode Island Air National Guard fighter wing, was knocked unconscious and partially paralyzed by the bolt.

Lt. Col. Richard S. Arlon, flight surgeon, said he expected Sivar to be partially paralyzed for a matter of weeks until his nerves recovered from the shock. Arlon said Sivar had stopped breathing and begun to turn blue before emergency treatment restored signs of life.

The New England guard unit is in training at the Gen. Carl A. Spaatz air field here.

ALLIES LOSE "OLD BALDY"

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—Chinese infantrymen today recaptured the crest of Old Baldy in the fifth day of a sear battle that has cost the Reds more than 1,000 casualties.

United Nations infantrymen still held the Southeast slope of the bitterly contested hill west of Chonwon on the Korean Western Front. Baldy overlooks both the U. N. and Communist main lines of defense.

Associated Press correspondent George McArthur at the front said about 200 Chinese pushed through heavy U. N. tank and artillery fire and retook the shell-scarred height.

U. N. troops reached the top at 2:30 a.m. but were forced to pull back down at 9:30 a.m. in the face of counter-attacking Chinese and heavy Red artillery fire.

DEVER RALLIES DEMOCRATS FOR SIXTH STRAIGHT

CHICAGO (AP)—Convention keynote Paul A. Dever rallied Democrats last night to what he predicted would be their sixth straight election victory over Republican "malice" and "fossils."

The Massachusetts governor, amid roars and rebel yells, threw up his arms and shouted: "We have vanquished them before—we shall vanquish them again."

Heaps Scorn On GOP

Swinging steadily through his 4,500-word speech, Dever heaped scorn upon the Republican party and praise upon the Democratic administration—particularly those of Presidents Woodrow Wilson, Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry S. Truman.

He made no mention of the Democrats' wide-open race for the presidential nomination this year. But he blasted the Republican nominee Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, as a complete novice unqualified for the presidency.

Voice Of The Fossil

The Republican convention two weeks ago, Dever said, raised "only the voice of the fossil." The platform adopted by the GOP then, he said, is:

"A shopworn declaration, conceived in malice, and dedicated to the proposition that all the great achievements of the last 20 years should be swept away."

In choosing Eisenhower as standard bearer over Ohio's Sen. Robert A. Taft, he said, the Republicans "threw overboard the faithful pilot who guided them for years and placed at their head one whose knowledge of navigation was confined to other waters."

Party Of Prosperity

In a prelude earlier in the day to Dever's keynote talk, National Chairman Frank E. McKinney said the Democratic party was one of peace and prosperity.

He added: "The rich, the powerful, the privileged, dominate the Republican party today, just as they dominated its ancestor, the Federalist party."

STEVENSON IS UNWILLING BUT HE'LL ACCEPT

GOV. STEVENSON

CHICAGO (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson, apparently yielding to the clamor, stood ready but unwilling today to accept the Democratic presidential nomination.

When he took leave of reporters last night, the Illinois governor referred them to Matthew 26:40. The newsmen checked the Bible and found it reads:

"O, my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me. Nevertheless, not as I will but as Thou wilt."

Barkley Move Helps

Stevenson's parting statement—the Biblical "as Thou wilt"—was in contrast to his earlier reply yesterday when asked about a report that President Truman might board a Stevenson bandwagon.

"If I were seeking the nomination, I would be enormously gratified by the President's support," he said then. "But, since I'm not seeking the nomination, I'm alarmed that it will add fuel to the draft fire."

Vice President Alben Barkley's withdrawal from the presidential nomination race was expected to throw more strength to Stevenson.

Trends Reported

There were indications Kentucky's 26 votes, pledged to Barkley, would now go to Stevenson. Trends toward the Illinois governor were reported in a dozen or more other state delegations.

Francis Myers, former senator from Pennsylvania, accepted the job of draft-Stevenson floor leader. Myers said he was asked to take the post by delegates representing 25 states.

Reports were circulating that Gov. Henry F. Schickler of Indiana would place Stevenson's name in nomination and that Pennsylvania and New Jersey would second it.

HONOR WANER, HEILMANN AT HALL OF FAME

COOPERSTOWN, N. Y. (P)—The wiry little man in the white suit grabbed the microphone like he used to embrace a baseball bat. "Fathers and boys come up to my batting range every day," he said. "They are worried because the boy isn't going to weigh 190 or 200. I tell them not to worry. You don't have to be a massive man to be a ball player."

The man was Paul Waner, all 145 pounds of him, and the microphone stood in front of baseball's Hall of Fame where they dedicated plaques yesterday to Waner and the late Harry Heilmann.

Hornsby, Hubbell Best
"I regret very much Harry couldn't have been here today," he said with humility, paying his respects to Mrs. Heilmann, who sat near by.

Three times National League batting champion at Pittsburgh in 1927-34-36 and author of 3,152 major league hits—one of seven to top the 3,000 mark—Waner still lives baseball.

Waner, a National Leaguer during all his career except for the final months, believes Stan Musial is the best modern day player. As the best players he ever saw, he said, "Hornsby for hitting, Hubbell for pitching."

Indians Beat Cubs
In the annual game at Doubleday field, the American League Cleveland Indians beat the National League Chicago Cubs, 4-2. Dick Rusk pitched three innings of hitless ball for the Indians after Johnny Berardino hit a tie breaking home run in the top of the seventh inning.

Harry Simpson and Joe Tipton hit for the circuit off Cub pitching in the fourth inning.

The Albany Senators will need more than a bonus baby to turn back the Reading Indians' push for first place in the Eastern League.

The Indians romped over John Watson, a premium pitcher in the Boston Red Sox chain, last night to beat the Senators, 3-1, on their home grounds for the third straight time. The win narrowed Albany's lead to 4½ games.

At Elmira, Walt Jasinski of the Elmira Pioneers whitewashed the Schenectady Blue Jays, 7-0. The triumph gave Jasinski a win over every club in the league, and his second shutout of the season.

Interstate

By The Associated Press
Four and a half games separated first place Hagerstown and runner-up Allentown in the interstate league today but both teams sport identical 15-6 win and loss records so far this month.

In the only other league game played last night cellar-dwelling Harrisburg was trampled by Lancaster 9-8 in the last half of the ninth inning after holding an earlier four-run lead.

YANKEES BEAT DODGERS 5-3 IN EXHIBITION

By JOE REICHLER
(AP Sports Writer)

The 48,263 spectators who watched the New York Yankees defeat the Brooklyn Dodgers, 5-3, in an exhibition at Yankee Stadium last night may have been seeing a preview of the 1952 World Series.

Certainly it will require some mighty big doings by any of the other contenders to knock either the Yankees or Dodgers off the top perch. The Yanks headed west today with a comfortable 4½ game margin over their nearest competitor. The Dodgers arrived home today with a commanding 7½ game bulge over the defending National League Champion New York Giants.

Yanks' Task Tougher
Of the two, the Yankees appear to have the rougher task ahead. Starting with a two-night double-header in Cleveland this evening, the world champions will pack 21 games into the next 17 days. There isn't an off day anywhere on the trip.

Brooklyn and the Giants open up 14-game home stands tonight. The Dodgers start with Cincinnati and the Giants take on the tough St. Louis Cardinals. The Brooks are riding high on the crest of an eight-game winning streak while the injury-riddled Giants are fumbling around following a dismal West-ern trip.

The impression is that if the Giants are going to pull another 1951 miracle finish, they'd better start right away instead of waiting until Aug. 11 as they did last year. The Dodgers appear unstoppable right now.

Strong College 11 To Battle Rams

CHICAGO (P) — One of the strongest collegiate squads in All-Star game history today was fully mustered and ready to grid for the August 15 clash with the Los Angeles Rams at Soldier Field.

All-Star Coach Bobby Dodd's roster was completed at 53 yesterday and the squad the Georgia Tech mentor leads into training at Delafield, Wis., Thursday should bring bruising trouble to the champion Rams of the National Football League.

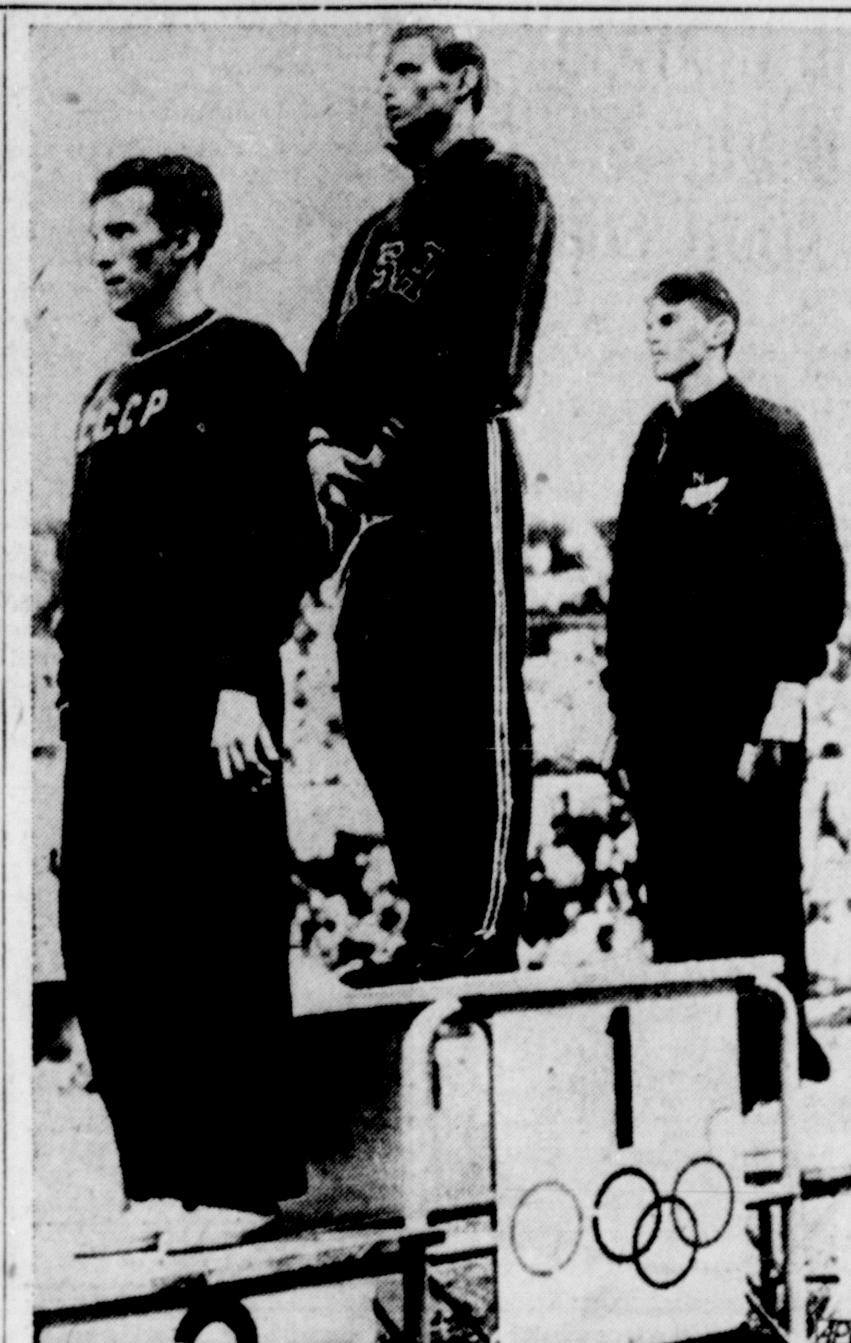

Size, speed and skill are packed into the collegiate contingent which was rounded out with selection of a fourth T-formation quarterback, Bill Wade of Vanderbilt.

The array includes seven ends, 12 tackles, seven guards, three centers, six linebackers and 18 backs.

3 AMERICAN DISCUS MEN IN FINAL TODAY

HELSINKI (P)—Three American discus throwers pitched their way into the final of the Olympic championship test today, but America's finest oarsman failed in his second bid for a place in the single sculls final.

Fortune Gordien of Minneapolis, world-record holder in the discus, needed three throws to achieve the required distance in this morning's qualifying round, but he finally made it with a heave of 165 feet, 1.94 inches. That left him some five feet behind Adolfo Consolini, Italy's defending champion, but it topped the best efforts of the other two Americans, both of whom qualified with their first throws and didn't try any more.

Jack Kelly Loses
Sim Iness of the University of Southern California did 160 feet, 5.23 inches and Jim Dillon of Alabama Polytechnic Institute and Up-Per Sandusky, Ohio, pitched 157 feet 2.65 inches. These marks were comfortably beyond the minimum distance of 150 feet 11.06 inches required to qualify for this afternoon's final.

Jack Kelly of Philadelphia and the U. S. Navy gave rowing fans one of their most thrilling spectacles in his "repechage" or second-trial heat in the single sculls, but the finish photos showed he was beaten by Theodor Kocera of Poland.

Thus Kelly, one of the favorites, was eliminated but Australia's defending champion, Mervyn Wood, advanced to the finals with a victory over Paul Meyer of Switzerland in a similar second trial. Wood was beaten yesterday by Britain's Tony Fox while Kelly suffered his first defeat at the hands of Turij Tjukalov of Russia.

In Rowing Finals

The United States gained one spot in the rowing finals when Chuck Logg Jr., son of the Rutgers University coach, and Tom Price, another Rutgers student from Eatontown, N. J., won their repechage heat in the event for pairs without coxswain. The American pair with coxswain, James Fifer and Duval Hech, both members of the Stanford Crew, was eliminated in a close race by Germany.

The Russian track and field team, second to the United States in the unofficial point tabulations, qualified two men in the first half of the field for the discus final. They were Otto Grigalka, who placed in the shot put yesterday, and Boris Butenko.

Russians Ahead
In the overall point scoring, including all Olympic events, Russia is ahead of the United States, 133½ to 720. The Soviet athletes scored heavily in gymnastics yesterday to offset the American margin in track and field.

The United States is expected to regain some of this loss in the point due in this afternoon's track and field finals. In addition to the discus, America has three of the top performers in the pole vault and two stars, including defending champion Mal Whitfield of Columbus, O., in the 800 meters final.

Drawings for pairings in the sectional tournament, made yesterday, will bring together winners of District 3 and 1 on August 6 and Districts 2 and 4 on August 7. The winners of the first-round games will meet August 8. All tournaments on a district and sectional level will be "sudden death," one loss eliminating a team from further play. Sectional games will start at 6 p.m. at Hershey.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Democratic Convention: Monday was Democratic day in Gettysburg. It was a large gathering of Democrats and Republicans who waited patiently for the convention to convene.

While the anti-Strubingerites claimed a majority of the delegates as early as Saturday evening, the Strubinger people did not lose courage, but continued a fight till the last. There was not as much friction as anticipated, the fight being too much one sided, and while Mr. Strubinger was beaten out by the Gettysburg Ring, it has been the first time for years.

At the Globe Hotel (headquarters), the street and the inside were a moving mass of politicians; and the white-apron men behind the bar were doing their utmost to fill the wants of the thirsty ones.

At 10:40 Chairman Devine called the vast assemblage to order.

Hon. Wm. T. Ziegler and Prof. J. W. Thoman were appointed tellers.

Result of the balloting had Dr. E. W. Cashman as chairman, defeating Dr. George L. Rice. This indicated that the Strubinger people were in the minority.

Henry Myers and James B. Carns were elected vice presidents by acclamation.

B. F. Fisher and H. Allen Swartz were elected Secretaries by acclamation.

The chairman appointed the following committee on resolutions: Wm. T. Ziegler, Isaac Hoechst, Amos S. Miller, Hall Thompson and Elmer Jacobs.

The following nominations were made: Congress—Judge McClean; State Senator—Milton H. Plank; Legislature—C. F. Bucher and David H. Guise; Sheriff—I. N. Lightner; District Attorney—Wm. F. Dill; Clerk of the Courts—Geo. W. Griest; Register and Recorder, Wm. H. Fowler; County Treasurer—Chas. B. Dougherty; County Commissioners—D. H. Pink and John F. Sharetts; Director of the Poor—Daniel B. Bucher; Auditors—J. E. Mundorff and Geo. M. Livingstone.

Local Miscellany: Dog days began last Friday and will continue six weeks, ending Aug. 26th.

Thursday was the hottest day of the year. The thermometer registered 96 degrees.

A long distance phone has been placed in Hotel Gettysburg.

R. C. Paxton has the contract for painting the woodwork of Christ Lutheran Church.

John B. McPherson broke ground today for his new house on Carlisle street.

There will be no services in St. James Church until August 17th, as the pastor, Rev. Steck, has been granted a vacation until that time.

Camping Party: A number of members of Camp 112, Sons of Veterans, of this place, are spending a week in camp at Decker's bottom, along the Big Conowingo. They left town early Monday morning and by daylight had pitched camp. With the party are some expert fishermen, and we expect to hear of some large catches.

Killed by Freight Train: Ralph Carey, 18 years of age, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carey, of Butler township, met a horrible death with in sight of his home, near Mr. Elmer Hamilton's residence, along the Reading railroad, about one o'clock Sunday morning, by a freight train passing over his body.

The young man was in Gettysburg Saturday evening. About 11 o'clock Mr. Carey and Mr. Rely took the railroad tracks to reach home. It is supposed that after separating from Rely, he sat down on the railroad to rest and fell asleep. Another theory advanced for his being on the track is attributed to the fact that he was subject to spasms, and that he was probably overcome by one, while walking along the road, causing him to fall across the rails in an unconscious condition.

The entire train, engine and eight cars, passed over his body.

The following verdict was rendered by the jury: Levi Mumper, Samuel Spangler, J. B. Hollebaugh, George Keibel, Frank Stallsmith and Harry Rupp.

That said Ralph Carey came to his death by being struck by the engine of extra freight train No. 784, of the Philadelphia and Reading

THAT ONE FRIEND

A friend, without quotation marks, is one of the rare finds in this world! He is to be found only in the select realm of spiritual grandeur. Never does he step down to that of a mere acquaintance, of which there are swarms! Perhaps that one friend may prove to be enough — if you can keep him.

We are apt to speak of a friend in too loose a manner. If he is of the genuine 24-k. kind, it is enough just to think of him as another self and abide in comfort over the fact. We will always know where to find him in an emergency — or at any other time.

That one friend needs no explanation, as he explains himself in all that he thinks and does. He never passes you up. In a large sense he is an explanation of yourself. With him you breathe the same air. Your tastes meld. You companion though you be widely separated in time and distance. It's the trust and confidence that we have in that one friend that confirm all the faith that we have in him.

I like to think of my one friend as a perpetual guest. I am forever inviting him, welcoming him, seeking his counsel, enjoying him. But I must take care to prove worthy at all times and educate myself in understanding. We cannot help but idealize that one friend as we do all that enters into a companionate friendship. We idealize love or else we would be cold and uninviting human beings.

We all die a little when that one friend no more treads the earth, or companions with us in the body, yet much remains. His spirit is a moving thing for so long as we live — and perhaps beyond. No relation in life can compete with that of having and holding that one friend throughout life. We are all imperfect representatives of the God-made man, but nevertheless we are images of the divine — searchers ever toward betterment. That one friend may prove to be fortune enough for any of us!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Explainers." Protected, 1952 by The George Adams Service

Just Folks

THE INNER VOICE
I do some things for friendship's sake
And some to serve a need.
But there are other cares I take
An inner voice to heed.

And there are deeds I do for love
And tasks I do for gain,
And some I do for God above,
His favor to retain.

I know not why it has to be,
But strangely this is true:
That inner voice keeps telling me,
"Here's something you should do."

NEW ICE-MAKING PROCESS

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — A new commercial process that is said to make ice 30 times faster and much cheaper than conventional methods has been developed by a University of Texas scientist, Prof. John R. Watt. The new technique resembles nature's process of making hail from raindrops. Watt's method forms a center core of ice and adds frozen layers rapidly from coatings of pre-cooled water. Ice produced in this manner can be cut in blocks, crushed or shredded.

IKE AND NIXON WILL CONFER NEXT SUNDAY

DENVER (AP) — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and his GOP vice presidential running mate, Sen. Richard M. Nixon of California, will discuss campaign plans Sunday at the general's vacation haven in the Colorado Rockies.

It will be their first get-together since they conferred briefly in Chicago after the Republican National Convention.

In Los Angeles, the adjutant general of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Julian Dickenson, announced Eisenhower will make his first major campaign address there before the VFW National Convention opening Aug. 3.

Eisenhower also will receive the VFW's Bernard Baruch Award given the American citizen a panel of judges says has contributed the Eisenhower aides said the general and Nixon will talk over various aspects of the fall campaign, including the role the 39-year-old California senator will play.

Eisenhower will confer at the ranch tomorrow with three key supporters. They are Sen. James H. Duff of Pennsylvania, Ralph C. Case, GOP national committeeman from Oregon, and Gov. Dan Thornton of Colorado.

Duff arrived in Denver late yesterday and told a news conference that "Ike will lick anyone" the Democrats nominate for President. "The Democrats have been so long in power they have abused their power," Duff declared. "The public is tired of them and wants a change. We've got the

Chinese Driven From Old Baldy

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—United Nations infantrymen Monday drove Chinese Communists off the crest of Old Baldy in the Korean Western Front in the wake of a tremendous barrage of artillery, tanks and warplanes.

Gen. Mark Clark's headquarters in Tokyo said the bitterly contested height west of Chonwon was captured. But front-line dispatches indicated the crest of the hill was a no-man's land with U. N. troops dug in below the crest.

A U. S. Eighth Army staff officer said the hill definitely was not secured.

Associated Press correspondent George McArthur at the front said the Chinese had not given up their bid for the vital hill they wrested from the Allies last Thursday. He said Chinese foot soldiers were observed sneaking back toward the

DEMOCRATS PUT IN TOUGH SPOT BY SOUTH

By JAMES MARLOW
CHICAGO (AP)—The South has the rest of the Democratic Party in a tough spot. It's in a position to throw its weight around. It's doing that.

At least five Southern state delegations have an arrangement by which, in effect, they can go home if displeased with what happens here and refuse to support the party nominee and his platform.

When the Southern States Rightists broke from the Democrats in 1948, splitting the party, they took 39 electoral votes from President Truman. Nevertheless, he won anyway.

Split Would Help GOP

This year the Democratic Party—under no illusions about the kind of fight it faces from the Republicans, headed by Gen. Eisenhower—may not be able to afford the loss of any Southern electoral votes.

Eisenhower will try to win some southern states, even if the northern and southern wings of the Democratic Party stand firmly together. His chances will improve if there's any Democratic split or even if the Southerners merely return home angry from Chicago.

Since this convention has to think twice about irritating the Southerners, it may try to mollify them.

Gigantic Difficulty

At this moment there's a to-do over the kind of civil rights plank the convention will approve. But convention promises on civil rights have had practically no meaning. That is, in terms of promises translated into action.

Even though it wins the elections, it's almost impossible for the Democratic Party to pass civil rights laws in Congress.

Both factions know the gigantic difficulty of passing civil rights laws. If there was a convention bust-up over civil rights as a matter of principle—on both sides—it would be understandable. The Southerners would certainly be consistent in their opposition for the sake of principle.

But, otherwise, there's no practical reason for a convention bust-up on civil rights, in view of the almost insuperable handicaps in the way of getting civil rights bills through the Senate.

It may be that the Southern leaders, knowing the South's importance to the party this year, want to put a damper on civil rights talk in the party platform.

Repetition of it every four years has the effect of an irritant, keeps the issue alive.

Or it may be that, coolly knowing how almost impossible it would be to translate civil rights platform promises into action, Southerners are pushing to get other concessions from the convention.

WOMEN PICK STEVENSON FOR TOP SPOT

(Editor's Note: Trellis Mae Peeble, the average wife of Wilbur Peeble, America's most average citizen, has been betrayed by her initial enthusiasm to come out for Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois for the Democratic presidential nomination. She tells about it in the following letter home.)

By HAL BOYLE
CHICAGO (AP)—Well, Wilbur, I still say all the Democrats need is a woman's touch.

No group of people I have met before has been so disorganized. The place is full of Democrats who believe in being Democrats. But they don't know who should lead them.

They are like a bunch of boys at a camp when the director has gone, and the kids run around yelling at each other—and no one to take over responsibility.

Never Felt So Sorry

For 20 years they have been used to playing follow-the-leader, and now they must pause and say: "Well, but, who is the leader now?"

Wilbur, I never felt so sorry for men since I first told you what shirts to send out to the laundry.

I just talked around among the girls here—honey, you know I know nothing about politics—and we all came up with the same answer:

"The only Democrat who can hope to beat Gen. Eisenhower is—Adlai Stevenson."

Kerosene In White House

He is the only Democratic possibility who has umm—ph—ph—the others only have promises.

I talked to some of the other girls I met here and this is what they said about the other fellows:

"Estes Kefauver—his coonskin cap is shedding, and too many honest horse players who can't get to the track can't lay down an honest $2 bet because of his moral crusade."

"Sen. Kerr has so much oil he would want to put kerosene lamps in the White House. Fascinating looking devil, though."

Save Vesp For Olympics

"The big advantage of Sen. Russell is that he is a bachelor and we would not have to watch how his progeny took advantage of the White House address—1600 Pennsylvania Ave."

"We ought to save Vice President Barkley for the 1956 Olympics. Instead of wasting him on the 1952 presidential race."

"Averell Harriman is in favor of so many things I am worried because he hasn't said what he is against. He simply can't be in favor of everything the New Deal stands for—Herbert Hoover proved that."

Wilbur, the way the girls I have talked to figure it is this way: Adlai Stevenson must be the best candidate because he simply shrugs off the presidency.

"The big advantage of Sen. Russell is that he is a bachelor and we would not have to watch how his progeny took advantage of the White House address—1600 Pennsylvania Ave."

"We ought to save Vice President Barkley for the 1956 Olympics. Instead of wasting him on the 1952 presidential race."

"Averell Harriman is in favor of so many things I am worried because he hasn't said what he is against. He simply can't be in favor of everything the New Deal stands for—Herbert Hoover proved that."

Forgotten Generals Waiting In Castle

DUESSELDORF, Germany (AP)—Twenty-six "forgotten generals" tenant a large and gloomy castle near here, waiting for the day they can return home.

The 26 were once commanders of forces under young King Peter of Yugoslavia. In 1941, they took part in the fight against the Nazi invasion. As Hitler's hordes swept ahead, they were imprisoned. When the Allies occupied Germany, they were housed in the 60-room Varlar castle near Dusseldorf.

Marshal Tito regards the 26 as monarchists and if they tried to return, he probably would mean prison. So the 26 generals, the youngest of whom is 52, are living on German charity. Each of them is given his lodging, a simple board, and six cents a day for pocket money.

Lincoln delivered his dedication address.

In all, there are over 2,300 monuments, statues and markers along 26 miles of marked avenues. Licensed guides conduct visitors to every section of the park, the average fee being $3 for an hour and a half or more. Devil's Den, the High Water Mark and Little Round Top get a lot of attention from motor tourists.

U. S. highways 15, 30 and 40 are the main avenues of approach to Gettysburg from the south, east and west, with the well-paved Pennsylvania highway 34 making a direct approach from the north—from Carlisle—over the route once used by Confederate troops in their southward march on the city.

AAA-approved hotels, inns, cottages and tourist courts are in and near the city and good accommodations may usually be found in that area. But around July 1-3, and November 19, anniversaries of the battle and of the delivery of the Get-tingburg Address, it is well to make reservations as far in advance as possible.

Gettysburg is a good place for a day's or a weekend trip; the children will like it; the climate is pleasant; and the food to be had in that part of Pennsylvania, particularly that always served at the Hotel Gettysburg, is as fine as you will find anywhere.

"Flying Saucers" Spotted By 87 Screens At Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force today investigated reports that several "flying saucers" had been spotted by radar virtually in its own backyard on the outskirts of the nation's capital.

Officials could not immediately agree on whether this was the first time radar has picked up flying saucers. Some said it was. All agreed it was unusual.

The objects also were different from the average reported saucer in that they traveled at a relatively slow speed, as well as later disclosing the customary burst that far outspeeds normal airplanes.

Reported 36 Hours Later
The flying saucers over the capital were reported late yesterday, about 36 hours after the incident actually occurred.

An operator at the Air Traffic Control Center at Washington National Airport, across the Potomac from the capital, spotted eight unidentified images on one of his radars — the area surveillance scope, with a range of possibly 70 miles.

The control center, operated by the Civil Aeronautics Administration, notified the Air Force and also asked planes in the air if they could see anything.

Seen By Pilot
Capt. S. C. (Casey) Pierman of Detroit, piloting Capital Airlines Flight 807, southbound from National Airport, soon reported seeing seven objects between Washington and Martinsburg, W. Va. He said they changed pace, sometimes moving at tremendous speed, at other times hanging almost motionless.

Saul Pett, an Associated Press newsman, said he saw a "flying saucer" that same night near his home at River Edge, N. J., outside of New York.

YOUTH, 19, HELD IN GIRL'S DEATH

SUNBURY, Pa., (AP) — A 19-year-old youth is being held on an open charge today in the fatal shooting of a 13-year-old girl as two teen-aged couples were parked in a car on a lonely road.

The victim was identified by the state police as Catherine Joan Hare of Sunbury. She was dead upon arrival at the Sunbury hospital.

Roland Bohner, 19, Sunbury, was held pending a hearing in nearby Union County.

State police said Bohner told them the .45 caliber revolver went off accidentally early Sunday as he was getting back into the car after firing the weapon into the air to frighten occupants of another car.

The slug penetrated the girl's abdomen and arm.
Bohner said he later tossed the gun into the Susquehanna River.

HIGHWAY DEBT PAID
ST. PAUL, Minn., (AP) — Minnesota has paid off the last of $110,996,725 bonded indebtedness incurred in early days of the state's trunk highway system. Since the system was established in 1921, payments have been $74,932,436 on the bonds and $36,064,289 in interest. The road system originally consisted of 6,850 miles. It now covers 11,900 miles.

In the U. S. there are 3069 counties.

EX. SEN. MYERS TO LEAD FIGHT FOR STEVENSON

By CHARLES WELSH
CHICAGO (AP) — Pennsylvania was another step deeper today into the drive to draft Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois for the Democratic presidential nomination.

This came about when former Sen. Francis J. Myers, chairman of the 70-vote Pennsylvania group, agreed to accept the floor leadership of the Stevenson supporters.

Thus one of the two most powerful leaders of the Pennsylvanians plunged into the thick of the fight, and there was no question how Myers' colleague, National Committeeman David Lawrence, mayor of Pittsburgh, viewed the situation. Myers and Lawrence, working as a team, engineered the unexpected Sunday night roll call of delegate preferences that showed 23 leaning to Stevenson.

Never Met Stevenson
In joining the volunteer Stevenson group that has been operating despite the governor's frequent statements that he does not want the nomination, Myers disclosed he never had met Stevenson.
"I don't know the governor, but I admire him very much and believe sincerely that he is the best candidate for the party," Myers told a reporter.

"I know all the other candidates intimately, but in accepting this I have put personal considerations aside to support the man I believe to be the best candidate for the party."

White House Not Involved
Myers added he does not now have or expect to arrange immediately an appointment with Stevenson, who has remained aloof from the growing drive to bring him the nomination.

In response to a question, Myers said emphatically that there had been no word of approval from President Truman in advance of the Sunday night roll call that was one of the biggest boosts the Stevenson drive has yet received.

"There was no consultation whatsoever with the White House, nor with Stevenson nor any other leader of the party outside the delegation," Myers said. "We just thought there should be some expression of sentiment from the delegation."

Kefauver Backers Meet
Since the roll call, he added, "four or five other delegates" have indicated to him willingness to support Stevenson. He predicted the governor would get "at least 45 votes" from Pennsylvania on the first presidential ballot.

But even while Myers was moving farther into the Stevenson camp, Pennsylvania supporters of Sen. Estes Kefauver met to study tactics and muster additional voting strength beyond the 14½ recorded for the Tennessee Sunday.

Albert M. Greenfield, Philadelphia banker, in whose hotel suite the meeting was held, said the Kefauver group had received pledges of support from four additional Pennsylvania delegates and planned to seek the support of 15 others. This will be done, Greenfield added, "with pressure."

Gloom Follows Union Shop Stand Renewal

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The CIO United Steelworkers' renewed demands for a non-compromise union shop — compulsory union membership — cast gloom today on the 51-day-old steel strike.

Negotiations were at a standstill and the government gave no indication of further intervention.

The stiffened union shop demand came yesterday at the session of the union's 170-man Wage Policy Committee, summoned into session by USW President Philip Murray.

Before the session ended, industrial representatives — in an unprecedented action — went before the union committee to present industry's side of the dispute. But the plea left the committee's collective mind unchanged.

Food Preferences Listed By Marines

WITH THE FIRST MARINE DIVISION IN KOREA (AP) — Members of the 1st Battalion, 1st Marine Regiment, prefer "heat-and-serve" food, dehydrated soups and pre-cooked preparations over sweets and other confections, according to a recent survey.

Cans of chili, soups, tuna, sardines and meat sandwich-spreads were rated high on the preferred list. Pepperoni was listed as favorite among meat items. Other cherished gifts from home are sharp cheese and cheese spreads, "instant" cocoa, tea bags and bouillon cubes.

DELAY BOOST IN RELIEF GRANTS

HARRISBURG (P) — The Public Assistance Department is postponing for two months—and possibly longer—the effective date of a $360,000 a month increase in relief grants.

A spokesman, who declined quotation by name, said the original plan to put the boost into effect by the end of July has been deferred because of the steel strike.

Striking steelworkers are draining off about $300,000 a month in relief payments since the walkout started two months ago.

"The steel strike is an important factor," the spokesman told a newsman, "but there are a lot of other factors involved, too."

One of them, he said, is the long period required to revise individual schedules for nearly a quarter of a million persons on relief rolls. Each person's grant must be determined individually, with a host of elements to be taken into consideration.

MOSSADEGH IS RENOMINATED

TEHRAN, Iran (P) — Iran's Parliament overwhelmingly renominated Mohammed Mossadegh Premier today after two days of bloody Nationalist rioting and disorder had forced the more moderate Ahmed Qavam from the office.

Qavam's announced determination to seek a settlement of Iran's oil dispute with Britain set off Communist-strengthened Nationalist mobs who screamed through the streets for his death and battled with police and troops.

Twenty persons reportedly were killed in the fighting which raged through the capital yesterday. Disorders erupted in other parts of the country. Qavam resigned yesterday afternoon.

Mossadegh, the aged Nationalist hero who pushed nationalization of Iran's British-operated oil industry to completion last year, quit the premiership last week after Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi refused to let him be war minister as well as Premier.

Personnel of the U.S. armed forces eat about 288 pounds of meat a year on the average compared with about 148 pounds for civilians.
